

Wachtel News & Notes...

Dave Scharfenberger received the Honorary Life Membership award from the Wisconsin Arborist Association (WAA). The award was given for his dedication and participation in the WAA and the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA) and the missions they represent. This is the highest honor the WAA can bestow upon a member.

Dave previously received the WAA Distinguished Service award and has served on the WAA board since 1992. He has been an active volunteer since 1985 and has been secretary/treasurer, program chair and president. He has served on the ISA board since 2003.

Dave receiving award with his wife Judy and daughter Eva.

Welcome to Dan Barwinski. He is a 2006 graduate from UW–Stevens Point with a degree in Urban Forestry. He spent two summers as forestry intern for the City of Milwaukee and worked weekends for his Dad's landscape maintenance business.
